

ABSTRACT

The design of this book is an appreciation and proudness from the writer to Batak's culture : ulos. As a Batak, the writer is very familiar with ulos, especially in Batak traditional ceremony. Through this book, the writer hopes that people will know more about ulos and conserve this priceless and valuable culture.

Ulos is a traditional woven fabric which made with all dedication from weaver to be given to their beloved family and relatives. As a Batak, a person must be involved in a variety of ceremonies with the applicable rules and philosophy of the social relations Batak society.

People use ulos in every traditional ceremony such as Birth Ceremony, Wedding Ceremony, and also Funeral. Ulos which will be given in each ceremony is different depending on the status of the giver to the person who receive it.

