

DIFFERENT PERCEPTION OF GENDER
REGARDING ACCOUNTANT PROFESSION
(CASE STUDY AT UNIVERSITAS MERCU BUANA)

By :

Firli Ransyah
NIM: 43207010163

ABSTRACT

This research explain about the different perception gender about accountant profession in accounting study program of bachelor or degree and diploma degree. The research method used in this study is to design the survey used of quizioner. There are 115 quizioner sample for the research conducted at the University Mercu Buana, that have been done 2 weeks. To determine differences in perception, researcher used the Independent Samples T-Test. The purpose of this research is to know the perception of comparison gender student about accountant profession in gender.

The results of this research show that there are no different between gender student in bachelor degree and diploma degree in accounting. The strength of difference score result experiment the bachelor degree of university student higher than score result of diploma degree accountancy. But at diploma degree, there is no different between gender the student.

Keyword : perception, accountant profession, gender.