

ABSTRACT

PRE WEDDING STORY BOOK

In the world of photography, To eternalise a beautiful memory into a proper photography that is taken before people marriage has been known as pre-wedding photography. This history is very seldom taken by most of the people who will be married, where most of photographers are just performing a very sophisticated digital cameras only, without showing lovely memorial touching into the pre-wedding photographs. The advantage of a story board compared to a photograph is that able to announce more consecutive things of memories. The idea to be performed is no need of complexity, but only the best memorial events of the bride and bridegroom candidates. The layout of the story board is able to be arranged concecutively, based on comical panels so that people will easily see the story respectively. Eventhough using colour style that for the past story will be stronger with black- white- colour and for the being performed and future stories using brighter colour. Throughout a good and properly made of the pre-wedding story book, writer wants to perform the beginning route of people when they started loving.
