

ABSTRACT

In this final task the author makes a website which contain the artwork from the authors which published through the online media and other supporting media. What author want to lift is about a media publication that needed for a graphic designer. A website can be a space to display the characteristic more dinamic with the used of technology and presented it online in order to be more widely accessible to the audience.

Before the making of, it required an analysis and data to go further into the creation process. Besides the website, the author also create another supporting media that will be used later to promote the website so that it more known and accessible to the target audience.

Keyword : website, artwork, publication, online