

ABSTRACT

This research is purpose to analysis the performance and the implementation of the electronic procurement of goods and services, by the Unit Layanan Pengadaan of Kementerian Perindustrian. Procurement of goods and services in the goverment is on of the fertile seed of corruption, collusion, and nepotism. Therefore performance based on principal of procurement of goods and services is very important. Especially in maintaining accountability, and prevent of corruption, collusion, and nepotism. Integrity, good morals, and management of the value of each individual in the duties and responsibility is very important. The performance of system can be run according to the function and the role if there is a synergy between system, human resources, and the public.

Keywords : E-procurement, performance system

UNIVERSITAS
MERCU BUANA