

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

After going through a long way in preparing this thesis, I have gained a lot of knowledge in the process of preparing this thesis entitled “The analysis of factors that have impact on Initial Return: Using Dividend Discount Model (DDM) approach”. This thesis is written as one of the requirements to achieve the Bachelor Degree in Economics, Universitas Mercu Buana. I realize that this thesis has imperfections due to the limitations of knowledge and experience that I have, hence, any suggestions are welcome.

In the process of writing this thesis, I cannot do it alone without prayers and supports from various parties around me, therefore I would like to deliver my sincere:

1. For the one and only, I thank Allah SWT who always simplifies every step that I take in the process of making this thesis. I would never have been able to finish this proposal without the will of Allah SWT.
2. I would like to deliver my sincere appreciation to my supervisor, Noor Prio Sasongko, Dr., ME. who always spares his time to motivate me by giving suggestions and clear directions in the process of preparing this thesis. My thesis would never have been finished without the guidance of my supervisor. Also, I am always motivated to finish my proposal and have gained a lot of knowledge with the help of my supervisor.
3. To the Head of Management Department, Dudi Permana, ST., MM.Ph.D, who always supports and motivates me and tells me I can do it so that I can be more open-minded and believe in myself to finish this proposal.
4. To all of the lecturers who have taught me until 7th Semester. Not forgetting the administrative staffs who are always ready to help me whenever I need help in the process of preparing my thesis.
5. For the most precious people in my life, my family. I thank my father and mother who always support, motivate and provide everything to me to finish this thesis. Their loves and supports cannot be replaced with anyone. Not forgetting also for my brothers who always understand my condition and help me whenever I need.

6. To my special person, Maulana Tauhid, for being a caring, understanding person, and always encourage me to finish this thesis. Thank you for accompanying me to meet my supervisor during days and nights.
7. To all of my best friends who always understand me and bring joys around, to Tamara who always motivate me to reach my dream to pursue my master degree abroad and be an intelligence sharing partner, to Thomas Lisdiyantoko and Surya Chandra Adji who are always be there and reliable whenever I need help in any time.
8. To all of International Students batch 2014 who have been passing the ups and downs of every semesters with joys and sorrow, keep supporting and helping each other, as well as the juniors batch 2015 and 2016.

I would not be able to finish the proposal without the help and support from all parties. May God always bless us with peace and happiness.
