

ABSTRACT

This study aims to determine whether the effect of company size, and Audit tenure to accepting going concern audit opinion with the debt default as a moderating variable. The population in this study is goods and consumer subsector manufacturing company listed on the Indonesia Stock Exchange (BEI) for the 2019-2021 period.

Based on the purposive sampling method, there were 156 final samples from this study. The analysis method used is multiple linear regression analysis and Moderated Regression Analysis (MRA). Based on the results of this study indicate that the firm size does not have a significant effect on the going concern audit opinion, while audit tenure has a significant effect on Going Concern Audit Opinion. Debt default is able to moderate the effect of firm size on Going Concern Audit Opinion. However, Debt Default is not able to moderate the effect of Audit Tenure on Going Concern Audit Opinions.
