The development of technology has transformed the way humans communicate and acquire information, particularly through the internet and social media. Ghosty's Comic utilizes social media, especially Facebook, to enhance their company's image. Therefore, the research entitled "Ghosty's Comic Cyber PR Activities Through Facebook Social Media In Improving Company Image (A Study on Students of Mercu Buana University)" aims to understand the online PR activities of the company and their impact on its image through the analysis of Ghosty's Comic Facebook page.

To support this research, there are five previous studies with relevant topics in the field of communication. The theories used encompass Cyber Communication, Public Relations, Cyber Public Relations, New Media, Facebook, Comic, and Corporate Image.

The research method used is a case study with a descriptive approach. This approach was chosen to delve into the interaction between Ghosty's Comic Cyber PR and its audience on Facebook, aiming to provide a comprehensive overview of the impact of these activities on the company's image.

The research results indicate that Ghosty's Comic has successfully built a strong corporate image through Cyber PR activities on Facebook. Their marketing strategies through social media have proven effective in increasing brand awareness and building a solid follower community. However, there are critical views from loyal followers who perceive changes in the quality and relevance of Ghosty's Comic content on Facebook. Nevertheless, individuals who are not actively following Ghosty's Comic express positive views on the company's reputation in creating entertaining and innovative content.
